Copied Aug. 1, 1900, by Rollin H. Cooke, of Pittsfield, Mass. The records are unbound but are made in book shape 6 X 8 inches and the earlier ones sewed together in three books of the size named with a smaller unbound book giving record of Deaths. The first records seem to have been kept on a few sheets of foolscap size and afterwards copied into the smaller books. They have been very carefully compared.

Confession of Faith.

You believe

That there is but one living and true God subsisting in three persons, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, possessed of equal excellence and glory, that God worketh all things after the counsel of his own will, and that He made & governs all worlds, creatures & things, that the holy Scriptures of the Old & New Testaments are the word of God & the only rule of faith & practice, that God created man in his own image under a law of perfect obedience, forbidding him to eat of the tree of knowledge upon the pain of death; that he fell from that state by transgression & plunged himself & his posterity into a state of sin & death, that all men are by nature totally depraved, and that God for his own glory has chosen all believers in Christ to eternal life thro sanctification of the Spirit & belief of the truth.

that Jesus Christ has made an atonement for sin, by which alone we must be saved, that the Holy Ghost regenerates, sanctifies, & prepares for future glory all who put their trust in Christ for salvation, that the righteousness of Christ is the only ground of Justification in the sight of God; & that all true believers will persevere thro' faith to final salvation, that the Sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper, that baptism is to be administered to adult believers & their infant children.

Answer to the Call from the Church and Society in Hartland.

To the first church and Society in Hartland.

I have received your united call to undertake the work of the gospel ministry among you. After a serious and prayerful consideration of the subject, with the advice of some of my acquaintance in the ministry, I feel it to be my duty to give the following answer.

The work of the gospel ministry is important and arduous. The eternal welfare of souls depends, under God, on the performance of this work. The duties of a minister of Christ are vastly important & often difficult. Were I to consult temporal ease I should decline the work but I hope I have given myself to God to be used as an instrument to promote his glory in the salvation of souls wherever his providence shall direct me. Your union in matters relative to my settlement among you, give me a hope of being instrumental in some good in this part of the vineyard of our Lord. And has he not by his Holy Spirit made the fields white already to harvest? I do therefore comply with your invitation and engage, if I should be placed over you in the Lord, to devote myself to the work of the ministry among you as long as God in his holy Providence shall direct.

Asking the prayers of the people of God among you that He would enable me by his grace faithfully to discharge the important duties which may devolve upon me, I subscribe myself,

Yours in the faith of the gospel,

Ammi Linsley.

May 3, 1822. At an adjourned church meeting the brethren passed the following vote of excommunication

A complaint having been brought before the church against our brother Heuben Beman stating that he has brought reproach upon the cause of Christ by profane swearing, by the excessive use of ardent spirits, by contempt of the church, & by withdrawing from the communion table, the church after mature deliberation with prayer to God, proceeded to examine the evidence in suppose of these charges. The brethren generally being present at the trial it was voted unanimously on each of the charges that they are proved true by proper testimony. Viewing our Saviour's rule of discipline in the 18th of Matt. as designed to reclaim an offending member, we have endeavored to follow the rule in the use of all proper means with the hope of reclaiming him. But these means proving ineffectual, the word of God direct us, after the 1st & 2nd admonition to reject such an one from our communion & have no fellowship with him. Having given the 1st & 2nd admonition, the brethren constrained by a sense of duty to God, to his church, & to this our brother, do by our vote, exclude him from our communion till by repentance & reformation he shall be regularly restored, praying that his soul may be saved in the day of the Lord.

In obedience to Christ's command which says, If he neglect to hear the church let him be unto thee as an heathen man & publican, we now solemnly cut him off from the church, hoping that he may remember the words of Jesus which follow his command, Verily I say unto you whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven, & whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Being grieved with our brother Augustus Humphreys on account of his long absence from the communion table & his neglecting to maintain & attend Divine worship & ordinances with us, we went & faithfully endeavored to convince him of his fault, according to Christ's rule in the 13th Matthew, & to persuade him to make gospel satisfaction.

Mr. Gates was cited to ans. to the above complaint on the 3rd of Nov. 1825.

Nov 3rd met according to adjournment, Mr. T.L. Gates not being present, adjourned to Nov. 17 & cited Mr. Gates to attend & ans. to the above complaint.

our br T.L. Gates stating that he has bro't reproach upon the cause of X by the intemperate use of ardent spirits, and by contempt of the chh, the chh after mature deliberation with prayer to God proceeded to examine the evidence in support of these charges. The brethren being satisfied that these charges are true, we do now, as the means used to reclaim this offending brother have proved ineffectual, by our vote, cut him off from our communion according to the rule in the 18th hatt. praying that his soul may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

By vote of the chh.

May 4th, A.D. 1780. The Church of Christ in the second society was embodied by the Rev. Joseph Strong & the Rev. Aaron Church, when the following Confession of Faith, and Covenant were adopted.

We whose names are hereunto annexed, having our habitation by divine providence in the western part of the Township of Hartland, being by law an incorporated civil Society, when by reason of too great distance we cannot with conveniency steadily enjoy Communion in the special ordinances of the gospel, with any regular organized Church of Christ. Deeply sensible of the high importance of such communion, & earnestly desirous of it, & to that end would be formed into a district & particular Church of Christ by ourselves, and therefore unitedly & cordially embrace, as matters of our firm belief the several summary doctrinal articles, contained in the following Confession of Faith, & fully consent to the Church Covenant thereunto subjoined.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

1. We believe in one only living & true God, a Spirit necessarily & self existant, infinite, eternal, unchangeable & incomprehensible in his being, subsisting in three distinct persons, Father, Son & Holy Ghost, yet one undivided essence, the creator, preserver & governor of all things, therefore to be owned, worshiped & obeyed as God alone, blessed forever.
2. The Scriptures of the old & new Testament a divine Revelation, wonderfully made by God to men, and are a sufficient and perfect rule of faith & practice.
3. God for the display of his own glory hath from eternity foreordained whatsoever comes to pass, in time: and by his wise & holy providence according directs & over rules all things to the accomplishment of that end.
4. G having made the first man upright, and constituted him a federal head for all his natural descendants, entered into A Covenant securing life & happiness (both to

- himself & them, upon condition of his perfect obedience, & denouncing death in case of failure. He fell from that holy & happy state by sin, whereupon he & his posterity lost their claim to life, & became obnoxious to death temporal, spiritual & eternal.
5. God of men sovereign grace, foreseeing the apostacy of man, from eternity chose & ordained his son to the high & important office of mediator between himself & his rebel subjects & in his of his pure good will, chose & ordained to faith holiness & eternal life, a certain definite number of our fallen race, hath entered into a Covenant of grace with them thro him to recover thereby his record & spirit from the ruins of the apostacy of his own image, favor & kingdom.
 6. The son pursuant to the divine eternal counsels, in the fullness of time came into the world, became truly man, & being God man mediator, obeyed the law & suffered the penalty, even death in the sinners stead, whereby he brot in everlasting righteousness & made satisfaction for sin, arose again from the dead, ascended into heaven, & ever tries to make intercession for his people, executes the three fold office of prophet, priest & king, for their benefit.
 7. God the holy Ghost the divine Comforter makes effectual application of the redemption wrought out by Christ to the elect, by his enlightening, convincing & sanctifying influences, enables them to believe in & to become united to Christ, in virtue of which union they are made alive from the dead, justified by the free imputation of his perfect righteousness, adopted into the family of God; become entitled to a sufficiency of grace to support & to enable them to persevere in spite of all opposition in faith & holiness to the end, & to eternal life & happiness in heaven.
 8. Christ the king of Zion has set up a visible Church in the world, & richly endowed it with all the needed means of grace & salvation; such as the ministry of the word, sacraments & Prayer, which are to be cordially received, diligently & faithfully attended & improved by his people, as the only ordinary appointed way of obtaining faith, holiness comfort and a proper happiness for the heavenly glory.

Baptism by his appointment, as a seal of the Covenant, & outward visible badge of Church membership, is to be administered not only to adults, professing faith in Christ, but also to their infant children.

9. That repentance, love & sincere gospel obedience, tho' they are not by any means to be substituted in the place of Christ, as the meritorious cause of acceptance & justification before God; yet are indispensably necessary to salvation: & that faith by wh^{ch} we are justified never fails to purify the heart, & to produce holy obedience.
10. God has revealed to us in his word, that there shall be in the last great day a general resurrection of the dead, both small & great, just & unjust: and that shall ever have lived on the earth, their souls & bodies being united, shall appear in one general assembly before the judgment seat of Christ, when every work shall be bro't into judgment with every secret thing, whether good or bad, all men judged according to their works, the wicked doomed to everlasting punishment, & the righteous rewarded to life eternal.

COVENANT

We do solemnly avouch the eternal God, Father, Son & holy Ghost, to be our God, & do devote & dedicate ourselves (& our children to him) promising as he shall enable us by his grace, to believe his word, obey his will, run the race of his commandments, walking before him, & being upright, exercising ourselves in the duties of piety, justice, charity & sobriety, watching over one another in the Lord. And because Christ hath appointed spiritual administration in his church, as censures for offenders, consolation for the penitent, teaching & quickening for all, such as the word sacraments, we promise by the grace of God, we will endeavor to maintain, truly countenance, faithfully attend upon, & orderly submit to them in this place, carefully performing our respective & enjoined duties, (that our

souls may be saved in the day of the Lord.

We therefore as a church of Christ, according to the apostolic direction in such cases, withdraw ourselves from him & exclude him from our communion, & leave him in the hands of the great head of the church, praying that he may be reclaimed from his errors, & that his soul may be saved in the day of the Lord.

At a meeting of the second Church of Christ in Hartland, at the house of Arnold Oatman, February 5th, 1824, Voted to give the Rev. William Ely a Call to settle with us in the work of the gospel ministry.

As Mr. Ely manifested his unwillingness to settle with us & the society did not proceed to make provision for his support the vote of the chh became of no use.

At a meeting of the second Church of Christ in Hartland, at the meeting house, July 1st, 1824, Voted unanimously to give Mr. Adolphus Ferry a call to settle with us in the work of the gospel ministry.

At a meeting of the 2nd church of Xt in Hartland, Oct. 13, 1824, The Church made choice of Dea. Abiathar Newton, Dea. Childs Taylor and Capt. Timothy Coe a Committee to present their call to Mr. Ferry & to unite with him in the choice of an ordaining Council, & to issue letters for the calling of the same.

Nov. 17, 1824.

Rev. Adolphus Ferry was ordained Colleague Pastor with Rev. Nath'l. Gaylord over the second Church in Hartland. The ordination services were performed in (the following order.

Oct. 30, 1828. At a Church meeting regularly called, Voted that it is the opinion of this Church that when a member of the church withdraws from the ecclesiastical Society to which he belongs, by throwing in a certificate, he becomes subject to church censure.

Dec. 9, 1828. At a Church Meeting, Lyman Merrills presented a complaint against Aaron Crane, charging him of Intemperance by a too frequent use of ardent spirits, of a want of veracity in not fulfilling his promise, & of negligence in attending public worship. Sd Crane acknowledged the charges & made such recantation as was accepted as satisfactory by the church.

At a church meeting, regularly called, April 29, 1829, Mr. John L. Case was chosen Deacon of this church.

June 15, 1829. At a church meeting regularly called, Voted the Invitation to communion in the Lord's Supper, customarily given to members of other churches, in not to be considered as extending to those of them who have resided among us more than one year, except by a particular act of the church, on their application.

At a Church Meeting regularly called January 23, 1833, Whereas Deacon Abithar Newton, by reason of age & bodily infirmities, feeling unable to perform the duties of a Deacon & wishing to be released from that service, & that another might be chosen to that office to take his place, The Church made choice of Col. Lester Newton to the office of Deacon in this church.

March 1, 1833. At a church meeting regularly called, Col. Lester Newton declined accepting of his appointment to the office of Deacon in this church. And the church proceeded to a new ballot, and made choice of Mr. Lyman Merrill as Deacon of this church.

March 10, 1833. Mr. Lyman Merrill publicly accepted of his appointment as Deacon of this Church, and by solemn prayer was consecrated to that office.

At a Church Meeting regularly called Aug. 26, 1833, The Church by their unanimous vote, gave the Rev. John A. Hempsted a call to settle with them, & to take the pastoral charge of this church & people.
